Our members, our mission

Anyone who has ever worn the Oakleaf collar device of the Navy Supply Corps is automatically a member of the U.S. Navy Supply Corps Foundation. The Foundation is a non-profit, philanthropic and social organization that exists to perpetuate the values, traditions, and history of the Supply Corps throughout the lives of individuals in the Navy Supply Corps community.

Helping Ensure the Tradition of Service

What is the Tench Francis Legacy Society?

Named after George Washington's first paymaster, the Tench Francis Legacy Society was established by the U.S. Navy Supply Corps Foundation to recognize those who help support the mission of the Foundation in their estate planning. That can include:

- A bequest in your will or revocable trust
- A gift or assignment of qualified retirement plan assets, such as an IRA, 401 (k) or 403 (b)
- A gift of life insurance

Why should I join?

As Supply Corps officers, we share a special pride in having served our country and we are especially thankful for the men and women who continue to serve today.

The U.S. Navy Supply Corps Foundation continues that tradition of service by providing support and assistance to those who wear the Oakleaf and their families, from commissioning through retirement and beyond.

From helping families during difficult times to helping make a college education possible, from recording and retaining our history and legacy to supporting our members transitioning into post service careers, the tradition of service continues at the Foundation each day.

To ensure this work reaches far beyond us, please consider becoming a member of the Tench Francis Legacy Society today. You will be making a lasting contribution to the Foundation and its work in support of the Navy Supply Corps family.

How do I join?

If you've considered including the U.S. Navy Supply Corps Foundation in your estate plans, but haven't done so yet, we encourage you to contact us for a confidential discussion without obligation.

If you have already included the Foundation in your estate plans, please let us know so we can include your name in the Tench Francis Legacy Society. Your generosity will encourage others to follow your example and it will help the Foundation plan for the future. If you prefer that your gift remain anonymous, we will respect that wish as well.

Learn more about the role you can play in securing the future for the Foundation and become a member of the Tench Francis Legacy Society. Contact us at:
