

CAPT James W. Cartee, SC, USN (Ret.) passed away Thursday, 20 September in McLean, VA. He was 91 years old. Interment at Arlington National Cemetery will be in December....date TBD. CAPT Cartee completed 30 years of active service and retired on 1 August, 1971 after serving at the Navy Aviation Supply Office, Philadelphia, PA. He received his bachelor's degree from Georgia Teacher's College and his masters from George Washington University. His duty stations include Naval Air Station, Pensacola, FL; USS Denver; Naval Air Station Norfolk, VA, Air Transport Squadron Eleven; Staff, Commander Naval Air Transport Service, Pacific; Staff, Commander Pacific Division, Military Air Transport Service; Staff, Commander Air Force, U.S. Atlantic Fleet, USS Palau; Naval Air Station Key West, FL; Bureau of Aeronautics, Washington, D.C.; under instruction, Naval Was College, Navy Area Audit Office, Washington, D.C.; Office of the Comptroller of the Navy, Washington, D.C.; and the Navy Finance Center, Cleveland, OH.

Obituary below was adapted from the Washington Post, 22 September 2007.

On Thursday, September 20, 2007, JAMES W. CARTEE of McLean, VA. Husband of the late Nancy D. Cartee; beloved father of Nancy Elizabeth "Betty" Tucker, Leesburg, VA, James W. Cartee, Atlanta, GA, Robert D. Cartee, Sterling, VA, Christopher N. Cartee, Herndon, VA and Sally Ann Clower, Ashland, VA. Also surviving are 12 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Interment Arlington National Cemetery, time and date to be announced in December. Family requests contributions may be made to the McLean Baptist Church or the Heart Fund.

Published in The Washington Post on 9/22/2007.