

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — Robert “Martin” Hanna, 79, of Hot Springs Village, Ark., passed away Feb. 9, 2015, quietly in St. Vincent’s Hospital after a long and happy life.

> Services will be 11 a.m. Monday at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Hot Springs Village. Arrangements are by Caruth Village Funeral Home, P.O. Box 8074, Hot Springs Village, AR 71910.

> In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Holy Trinity

Martin was born Feb. 12, 1935, in Winfield, KS, where he met Janice, his lifelong sweetheart. After graduating Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps from the University of Kansas with a degree in mechanical engineering degree in 1958, Martin served in the United States Navy where he obtained a master’s degree in computer science. He retired as a commander after 20 years of service. Martin then worked as a corporate executive in computer data systems for 14 years until retiring in 1993 and moving to Hot Springs Village. He remained there until his death.

> He actively served on the board of the Village Community Foundation, the board of the Symphony Guild, as chairman of research and special projects of the POA and was a very active member of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church
