

RADM Ted Walker selected as 58th NSCF Distinguished Alumnus

The Foundation is saddened to share the news of RADM Ted Walker's passing on Saturday, December 11th, 2021*. He was recognized as a Navy Supply Corps Foundation Distinguished Alumni in 2020, inducted by way of a virtual ceremony. The Supply Community was blessed with RADM Walker's decades-long leadership and friendship-- a mentor to so many in our Community. RADM Walker enjoyed a long and successful career in the Supply Corps, culminating as the 35th Chief of Supply Corps. He transitioned out of the Navy and continued his success while serving as President and CEO of the U.S. Navy Memorial Foundation and Chairman of the Vinson Hall Retirement Corporation.

The Foundation's Distinguished Alumni ceremony celebrated RADM Walker's achievements during a recorded virtual ceremony, hosted by Foundation Chair RADM (ret) Mike Lyden, with Guest Speaker VADM (ret) Edward M. Straw, former Commander Defense Logistics Agency, and special guests: Foundation Executive Director CAPT (ret) Daniel Pionk, and Distinguished Alumni Committee Chair and Foundation Distinguished Alumni CAPT (ret) Bud Schiff.

The ceremony honoring RADM Walker can be viewed on the NSCF YouTube channel, through the link provided below:

https://youtu.be/X1B_r13W8CU

To read a recent article about RADM (ret) Ted Walker, please see the Summer 2020 Issue of The Oakleaf.

* Please click here to read more about RADM Walker's life and visit the In Memoriam section of this website for additional information on funeral services and a NSCF endowment in RADM Walker's name, as information becomes available.

RADM Ted Walker selected as 58th NSCF Distinguished Alumnus

RADM Ted Walker selected as 58th NSCF Distinguished Alumnus

